

Class of 1965 gathers for 40th reunion

Albany High School graduates from the Class of 1965 met at the Icehouse Restaurant for dinner Friday, October 14, 2005 to begin celebrating their 40th high school reunion. The celebration continued the next day at the Lake Hubbard home of Judie Ledbetter Crocker.

Of the 48 graduates in the class, 20 classmates gathered at 11:00 a.m. for a backyard barbecue, picture-taking, visiting and the retelling of many high school stories.

The favorite all-time memory classmates shared was when teacher Myrtle Wooley's hair caught on fire during chemistry class. That and other stories kept everyone laughing.

Members attending were Barry Cribbs, Jim Davis, Carl Hill, Garry Bartee, Larry Bartee, Gene Perry, Jean Bowman Bills, Judie Ledbetter Crocker, Nell Coffman Lefevre, Ginger Dennis Locker, Pat Walters Van Allen, Ronnie Pendleton, David Harrell, Ron Latimer, Larry Brewster, Ronnie Waters, Barbara Pugh Perry, James Perry, Pat Duke Shelton and Dickie Shelton.

Class members voted to meet every year.
